

Bournehall School

Rainbow Support Group

Are you a parent/carer of a child with a diagnosed or undiagnosed disability?

Do you have a concern about your child's behaviour?

Would you like help and support as well as general information and practical tips?

Do you feel you could offer support to other parents/carers of children with disabilities?

Would you be interested in listening to the occasional speaker on various topics?
(I.e. Money Advice)

Rainbow Support Group is being run by The Reddings Children's Centre staff in partnership with Bournehall School. It is for parents/carers with children with a range of additional needs to share their experiences and receive support. If you feel you need help and advice or feel you could offer support and information to others, please come along for a hot drink, biscuits and a chat in a friendly, informal group.

Dates: 18th April, 16th May, 20th June, 18th July.

Day: Thursday

Time: 9.30 am – 11.30 am

Venue: Bournehall School (Meeting Room)

For more information please contact
